INDIAN COMPANIES ACTS

1913 to 1936

by

SOLOMON JUDAH,

Advocate, High Court, Bombay.

THE Indian Companies (Amendment) Act of 1936 has brought about many important changes in the statute law relating to incorporated companies. These alterations considerably affect the position of Managing Agents and Directors. "Indian Companies Acts, 1913 to 1936," by Solomon Judah, fully deals with the legal implications of the changes in the law, and contains up-to-date annotations. Mr. Judah is a well-known advocate of the Bombay High Court, and his previous publication "Handbook of Indian Company Law" was well received everywhere and is often referred to in Court by leading counsel. His latest book contains a mass of information of direct interest to lawyers, company promoters and managers, secretaries and auditors.

PRICE

Rs. 15

Mr. Judah's book on the Indian Companies Acts is a very valuable addition to the works on this interesting and difficult branch of civil law.
